

Company Profile

About Mega Worldmart Ltd.

We are a Bangladesh-based importer, exporter, supplier, and contractor delivering IT-enabled services, software development, IT training, and e-commerce solutions for local and international clients.

Trade, Technology & Training—Delivered

Bangladesh-based importer, exporter, supplier, and contractor delivering IT-enabled services, IT training, software development, and e-commerce for local and global clients.

International sourcing with clear coordination

We support sourcing, documentation coordination, and shipment handling to move goods efficiently across borders—backed by transparent communication.

Supplier identification & verification

Documentation & shipment coordination

Quality-first execution

IT-enabled services and custom software

From operational enablement to custom web and software development, we build maintainable solutions aligned to your workflows and growth plans.

Technology consulting & planning

Custom web/software development

Ongoing support & improvement

Practical programs for job-ready skills

We deliver structured training for students and professionals—focused on fundamentals, applied tools, and real-world outcomes.

Hands-on learning approach

Curriculum aligned to industry needs

Guidance from experienced practitioners